

K-Love serves us as a community because it reaches out to everyone of us and it ministers to us also. The effect it would have would be no great music without commercials no pastoral help when we need it and no influential messages at the right time when we could use it most. So the public could also listen about Jesus no matter the music , prayers , or testimonies.